

Burke County Personnel Policy
Effective July 1, 2009 (revised June 2016)
Article VI.

Workplace Harassment, Section 5.08

Burke County has a zero-tolerance policy against any form of unlawful workplace harassment, including harassment defined as sexual, race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, color, disability, or genetic information. No employee, regardless of position, may engage in conduct that falls under the definition of unlawful workplace harassment. This is generally defined as unwelcome or unsolicited comments or conduct based upon race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or genetic information that creates a hostile work environment or circumstances involving quid pro quo situations. All employees have the expectation of working in an environment free from unlawful harassment and retaliation. Indifference by supervisors and other employees with authority will not be condoned either. All complaints made by employees will be investigated and appropriate remedial or disciplinary action taken on complaints that are substantiated.

(a) Reporting a complaint of any kind is difficult since complaints generally involve a supervisor or coworker. However, an employee who believes that they may have a complaint of harassment is advised to file the complaint according to the procedures outlines in Article X Section 10.04 of this policy.

(b) All complaints will be investigated pursuant to the procedure outlined in Article X Section 10.04.
